LOCAL ARTIST PERFORMING DEMONSTRATION AT IOWA STATE WORLD
ORGANIZATION OF CHINA PAINTERS CONVENTION

Davenport, Iowa, May 20, 2009 -- Kim McCool of Davenport, Iowa will be demonstrating at the Iowa World Organization of China Painters Convention May 28-30th at the Holiday Inn and Suites, 4300 Merle Hay Road, Des Moines, Iowa.

Artist Kim McCool has been creating porcelain works of art for over a decade. She will be demonstrating the fine art of painting 18th Century Gold Work. She has designed and painted with 24KT gold for many of her designs on porcelain and will share how to approach this design process to create a one of a kind collectable. McCool's demonstration is scheduled for Saturday, May 30th from 10:30-11:30AM. The convention and demonstration will be open to the public. She will be exhibiting some of her pieces and have several for sale.

McCool is committed to not only creating her art, she does an average of 45 individual commissions annually, she is dedicated to keeping the art of porcelain painting alive. In addition to training with some of the most esteemed artists in the field McCool has taken many student artists under her wing to teach them this wonderful medium. Her studio is part of her home and is a special place for her two loves of creating porcelain art pieces and teaching others to create their own unique porcelain art through weekly classes held in the studio.
